Christmas, 1944

A Christmas Greeting

It gives me a great deal of pleasure, as your Commanding Officer, to extend my sincerest Christmas Greetings to each one of you. For many, it will be another Christmas away from your family and loved ones; for some, it will be the first time you have been away from home during the Holiday season. With this in mind, every effort is being made to contribute to your happiness during the Holidays.      S      S      S

This book is given to each of you, as a gift from the Welfare and Recreation Department of the Hospital. I hope you will like it, and keep it as one of your favorite souvenirs of your duty in the South Pacific. Likewise I trust that you may experience joy and happiness, even though you are far from home, on this Christmas Day.      S
A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year is my wish for each of you.      S      S

An Historical Statement

U.S. Fleet Hospital No. 105 originated in Brooklyn, N.Y. the home of the Naval Medical Supply Depot as well as that of the Dodgers, and was named U.S. Naval Mobile Hospital No. 5, which name was retained until June 8, 1944. The official commissioning took place May 26, 1942, in the presence of the nineteen officers and two hundred and sixty enlisted men with Captain Fredric L. Conklin (MC) U.S.N. in command. A great deal of training and hard work was the order of the day in the months to follow as the hospital and personnel made their way from Brooklyn to New Caledonia, arriving September 23, 1942.

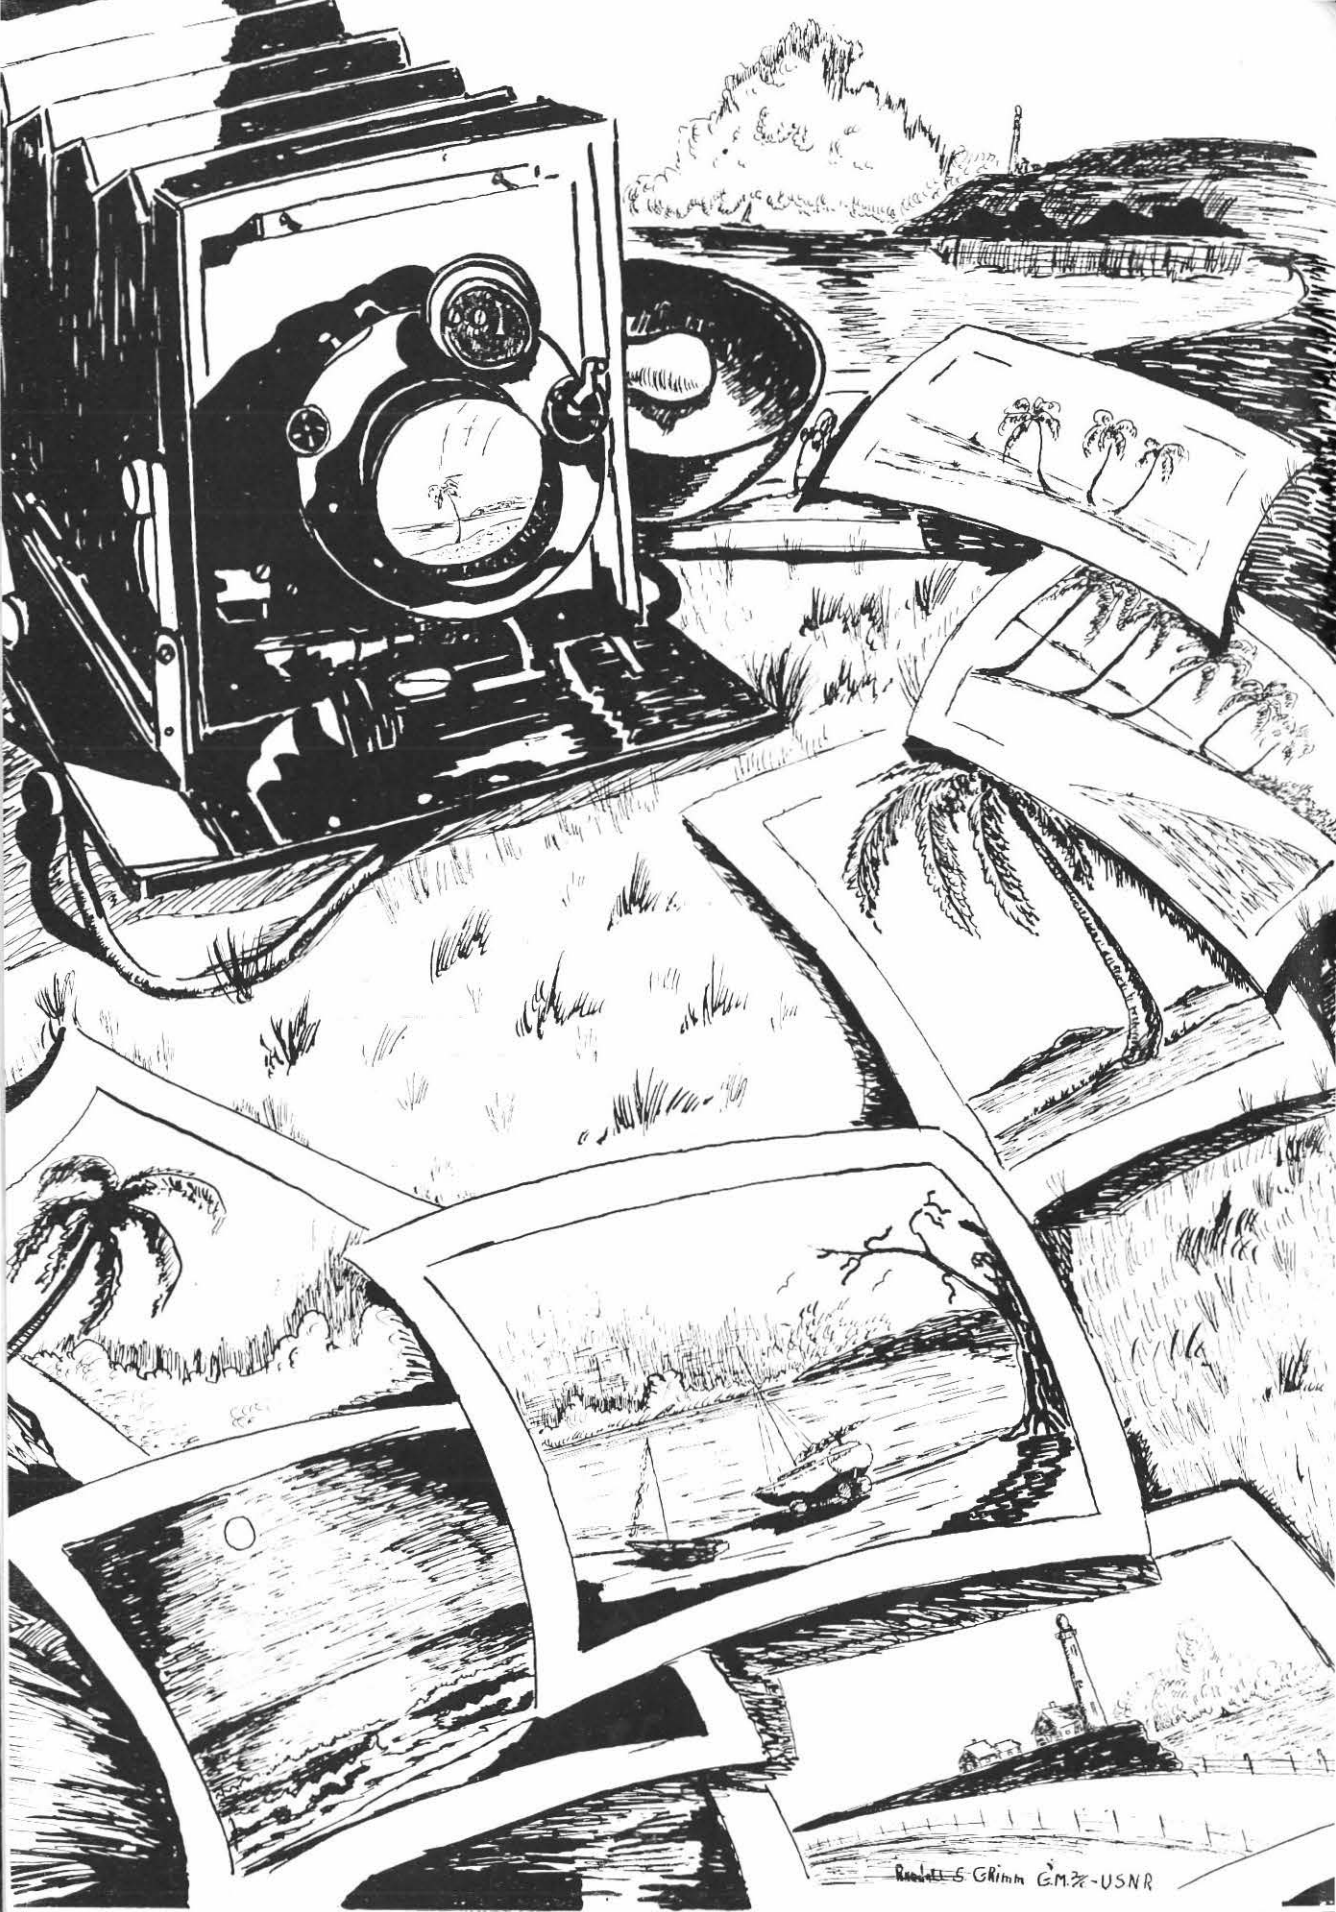

The Stars and Stripes were raised over the hospital November 23, 1942, four days after the first group of patients was received from Guadalcanal. During the period to follow, through the year 1943, hospitalization and medical care was furnished to patients from Guadalcanal, Tulagi, Bougainville, New Georgia, Treasury, Makin Island, Vella La Vella and other land actions as well from the Fleet.

Captain S. S. Cook (MC) U.S.N. relieved Captain Fredric L. Conklin as Medical Officer in Command on March 29, 1944. During the year 1944 the hospital was improved continuously for the comfort and welfare of patients and staff. Patients were received from action in and about the Marianas Islands and other areas of the Central and South Pacific.
